DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Further:

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Page 1, at the end of line 22, "displays" should be – display --; page 2, on line 24, "devices" should be – device --; page 3, bottom line, before "and", "," should be -- ; --; and page 7, on lines

7-11, numerals "31" and "32" of Figs. 3A and 3B represent elements different than the elements 31 and 32 of Figs. 1 and 2.

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to because numerals 31 and 32 of Figs. 1 and 2 represent elements different than the elements 31 and 32 of Figs. 3A and 3B.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2873

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The recitation in claim 1 fails to particularly point out where the first and second sub-pixel electrodes are arranged with respect to each other, and with respect to the common electrode.

The recitation in claim 2 fails to particularly point out where the first and second light absorbing layers are arranged with respect to the electrodes.

In claims 3-5: on line 2, "the light absorbing layer" has no definite antecedent basis. Is it the first, or the second – layer?

In claim 4: the recitation on line 3 is inaccurate in that neither first nor second light absorbing layer is on the second sub-pixel electrode 12.

Claims 6-10, depending from rejected base claim 1, inherit the indefiniteness thereof.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section

351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Kishi et al.

As now broadly worded, claim 1 clearly reads on Figs. 1, 3-6 and 8-11, and the accompanying texts of Kishi et al.

In Kishi et al, the pixel illustrated comprises a common electrode (first control electrode) 5 and two display electrodes 3 and 4 sandwiching an electrophoretic medium (6 and 7). In this arrangement, the space formed between the common electrode and one of the display electrodes (3 and 4) can be construed to be a sub-pixel.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by either Goden'600, or Goden'039.

As now presented, claim 1 clearly reads on either Goden's patent. See Figs. 3-10, 13 and 22 and the accompanying texts. See explanation given above since the device of Goden's patents is similar to that of Kishi et al patent.

Allowable Subject Matter

From all the claims presented, the subject matter now recited in claims 2, 6 and 7 is noted to be allowable.

Claims 2-5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
